NOTE FOR: Director of Central Intelligence

Sir:

I have under way a more suitable framing for President Ford's picture that is in your Conference Room, as well as a special treatment of the photograph itself that gives somewhat the appearance of an oil portrait. The frame we are arranging for it has a place for an inscription such as the one did for President Nixon.

We did sometime back present you with previous inscriptions from past Presidents, and I believe you were going to interest the President in this matter.
